@New Orleans Jazz Museum (400 Esplanade Ave)

The New Orleans Jazz Museum will debut a new exhibition, “The Wildest: Louis Prima Comes Home” on Wednesday, May 1, 2019. As a trumpeter, singer, songwriter, and performer, Louis Prima’s swinging persona conquered New York, Las Vegas, Hollywood, and points in between. View photos, hear recordings, see his instruments and stage wear at The New Orleans Jazz Museum. Sponsored by the Gia Maione Prima Foundation.

The public is invited to this free opening, which will feature catered food from the Garnished Palette, and an open bar featuring local cocktails. Arrowhead Band will open the evening with a performance. Lena Prima, daughter of Louis Prima, will close out the evening on our main outdoor stage.

Admission is free and open to the public.
